Con Men, Conspiracy and Nazis

By MATTHEW WOODS

Between the years of 2015 and present, I have been the victim of multiple con conspiracies; it was so vast that I could not even believe it myself at first. I thought that I had gone insane. In retrospect, it appears that they were Crazy Making me with large numbers of people. The scope of the con included family, friends, coworkers, professionals, police, hotels, hospitals and more. I was 14 years old and living in Pennsylvania the first time something like this happened to me. I never understood then, yet I moved on and never experienced anything similar until 2015. My consensus is that my family played a role in all of these cons. They are Nazis: psychopaths who organize conspiracies around me without me knowing it. I cant imagine to what end, since they started with me so early. Perhaps making a weak useful idiot that they could control was the goal. Thankfully I never listened to them: they failed. When I was 18 I joined the Navy and never looked back, certain that whatever nonsense I had been experiencing with them would cease. I could nt have been more wrong.
